1 DAVID EASTON

The commodious great room is a good fit for this designer's robust pieces. Furnishings from Easton's collection for Henredon, covered in Lee Jofa fabrics. Sea grass rug, Stark.

2 BARBARA OSTROM

A big space, like this vaulted family room, demands a big statement. Ostrom supplies one with white latticework over yellow walls in Farrow & Ball's Babouche yellow. Furnishings and fabrics, Robert Allen Beacon Hill.

3 MARSTON & LANGINGER

The glass conservatory is a shimmering counterpoint to the gray shingles typical of the Hamptons. Landscape designers Jack deLashmet and Sally Pagliai surround it with hydrangea, topiary, and ornamental grasses.

4 NANCY CORZINE

Corzine brings gracious country living to the master bedroom with her own fabrics and designs, including a walnut finish four-poster bed and Louis XVI-style desk and chair.
